

The Center for Anti-Slavery Studies and Keystone College, in partnership with the Susquehanna Co. Historical Society, cordially invite you to attend a very important to discuss the local history project, The Place I Call Home: Northeastern Pennsylvania's Underground Railroad History

Town Meeting

Friday, April 15, 2005 from 7:00-9:00 pm

at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 60 Church St., Montrose PA

The Underground Railroad

ADMISSION: FREE

Our region played a vital role in the Underground Railroad, but we are losing invaluable documentation and relevant sites at an alarming rate.

Join us for an informative evening to learn about an ambitious project that seeks to research, preserve and share this region's amazing Underground Railroad story.

Info and directions at:
www.antislaverystudies.org

With special thanks to our Funding Partners:

Keystone College

PHC | Pennsylvania
Humanities
Council

Scranton Area
Foundation
Catalyst for Community

LACKAWANNA
Heritage Valley
A State and National Heritage Area

Montrose Firemen - circa 1880-1900

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES