

The Center for Anti-Slavery Studies and Keystone College, in partnership with the Monroe County Historical Society, cordially invite you to attend a very important to discuss the local history project, The Place I Call Home: Northeastern Pennsylvania's Underground Railroad History

Town Meeting

Monday, April 11, 2005 from 7:00-9:00 pm

at the Western Pocono Community Library
Rt. 115 & 2000 Pilgrim Way, Broadheadsville PA

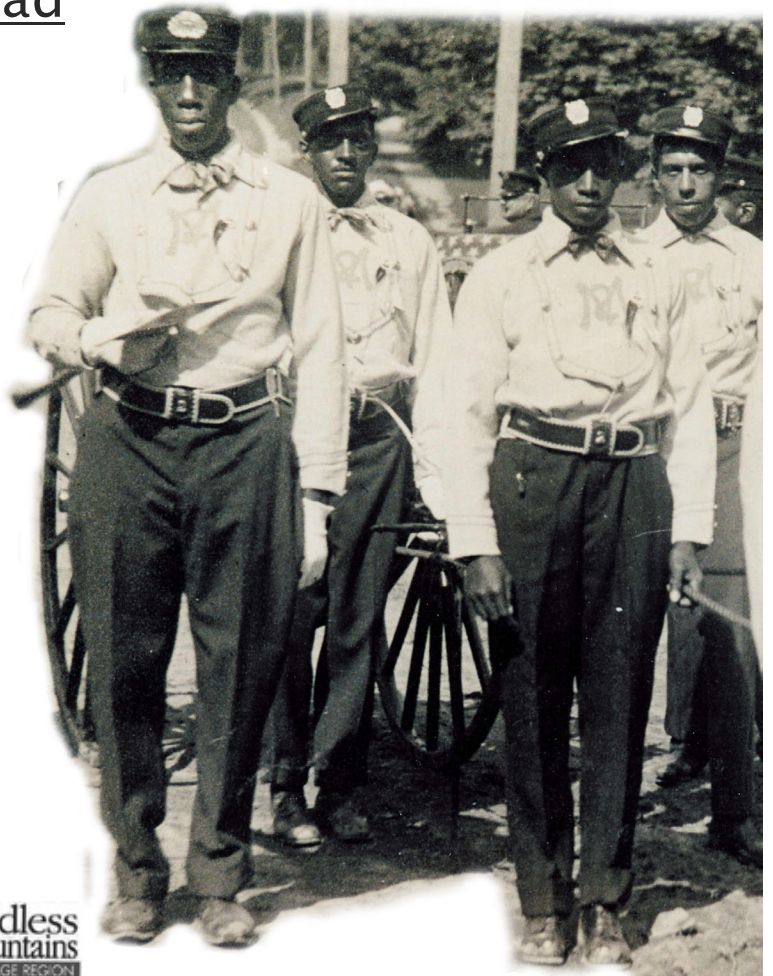

ADMISSION: FREE

The Underground Railroad

Our region played a vital role in the Underground Railroad, but we are losing invaluable documentation and relevant sites at an alarming rate.

Join us for an informative evening to learn about an ambitious project that seeks to research, preserve and share this region's amazing Underground Railroad story.

Info and directions at:
www.antislaverystudies.org

Montrose Firemen - circa 1880-1900

With special thanks to
our Funding Partners:

Keystone College

PHC | Pennsylvania
Humanities Council

The Luzerne Foundation

Scranton Area Foundation
Catalyst for Community

LACKAWANNA
Heritage Valley
A State and National Heritage Area

Endless Mountains
HERITAGE REGION

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES